ITALIAN BOMBERS RAIN HAVOC ON ALBANIA; 2 CITIES IN FLAMES

ALBANIAN WAR MAP SHOWS POINTS OF ITALIAN AGGRESSION

BULLETIN

ROME, April 7 (INS)—The official Stefani News Agency announced tonight Italian troops have completely occupied the Albanian cities of Valona, Santa Quaranta, Durazzo and San Giovanni Di Medua.

TIRANA, Albanian, April 7 (AP)—Official Albanian reports said today Italians invading Albanian soil were repulsed four times with heavy losses.

The official reports said Valona was bombed from the sea and air and was burning but that the Italians had been unable to land at that port city.

It was stated, however, that the Italians had occupied Sarana, at the southern tip close to the frontier of Greece, and Saint Joan. Saint Joan was also said to be burning.

The Italians were said to have advanced inland ten miles from Saint Joan and then to have been stopped.

It was reported here the Italian commander at Durazzo, where his forces landed, proposed a truce to save bloodshed. This evidently was not accepted.

Italian bombers flew continuously over Tirana, the capital, dropping proclamations.

Peace negotiations were reported under way at noon by a delegation which, a well-informed source said, went to Durazzo to arrange an end to hostilities.

The informant said Italy accepted "Albanian counter-proposals."

The cabinet was summoned to the royal palace. There were reports Albania rejected an Italian ultimatum, its nature undisclosed.

Economics Minister Rrok Gera and Colonel Sami Koka of the Albanian army were said to have headed the delegation to Durazzo, accompanied by Colonel Gabrielli, military attache of the Italian legation.

ALBANIA PROTESTS MASSACRE

PARIS, April 7 (AP)—The Albanian legation strongly protested the "barbarous action" of Italy against Albania in a published statement this morning.

The legation asserted that Albanian troops had repulsed "up to the present" Italian troops attempting to land at Adriatic ports, and continued:

"Very large naval and aerial forces bombarded and are bombarding unprotected cities on the coast, massacring defenseless women and children."

The legation asked "all civilized nations" to send aid to the Albanians who "despite unequal numbers are baring their chests against the barbarous invaders."

King Zog appealed to his people to fight "to the last drop of blood" against Italian invasion, Havas (French news agency) reported from Belgrade.

Zog's appeal was broadcast from Tirana at 3 p. m. (9 a. m. E. S. T.) in German, French and Italian. Shortly afterward the radio carried an attack against Premier Mussolini, charging he was sacrificing Italian youth to "imperialistic goals of empire."

The radio said Durazzo port was bombed six times, twice by Italian airplanes and four times by the

Zog Begs His People 'Fight To Last Drop'

ROME, April 7 (INS)—Although outnumbered "1 to 44," Albanians were called on today in continuous broadcasts from Tirana to resist Italy "to the last drop of blood."

Italian quarters understood the rallying-cry was a personal appeal from King Zog to his people.

"We are 1 against 44," the broadcast said, referring to the ratio between Albania's and Italy's populations. "But we are not ready to have our destiny changed for us."

To Italy, as King Zog appealed that the attack cease, he said:

"You squeezed us dry financially—now you are attacking us!

"The royal troops (of King Zog) are still resisting and want the world to know they are still resisting."

War Bulletins

SOFIA, Bulgaria, April 7 (AP)—The Tirana radio this afternoon announced the Italian invasion of Albania was being "resisted heroically." In a communication to all Albanian legations abroad, the radio said:

"Italian forces are bombing the whole of the Albanian coastline. Fighting on our side is being carried on with great enthusiasm.

"The royal Albanian government has decided to resist the Italians to the bitter end."

The Albanian radio announcement said Durazzo was bombed seven times today, Valona three times, while other points on the coast were subjected to sporadic bombardment.

Albanian forces were said to have repulsed one charge of Italian forces at Durazzo, forcing them back to their warship.

Other reports from Albania asserted hundreds of foreigners in the country were offering to serve in the Albanian army "against the common enemy."

LONDON, April 7 (INS)—Abdication of King Zog as ruler of Albania may be expected shortly, it was indicated in confidential advices received from Rome late today.

BELGRADE, April 7 (INS)—Durazzo, Albanian town of 8700, was completely destroyed in today's Italian bombardment, according to a broadcast from Tirana.

PARIS, April 7 (INS)—The city of San Giovanni di Medua on the north Adriatic coast of Albania, was completely destroyed today by Italian bombardment, according to a Havas dispatch from Belgrade.

ROME, April 7 (AP)—Certain reserve officers of the Italian army were called up today for "refreshening."

LONDON, April 7 (INS)—High German government officials met today at the foreign office in the Wilhelmstrasse in a conference reported to be about the Italian invasion of Albania, according to a Reuter's dispatch from Berlin.

BELGRADE, April 7 (AP)—Yugoslavia closed her border with Albania tonight as concern grew here over Italy's military invasion of the Albanian coast.

BUCHAREST, April 7 (AP)—Foreign Minister Grigore Gafencu left late today for Istanbul for an emergency conference tomorrow with Turkish Foreign Minister Sukru Saracoglu on Italy's invasion of Albania.

Bombing 'Necessary,' Italy's Explanation

ROME, April 7 (INS)—Italian war planes and naval vessels heavily bombed Albanian ports today as Premier Mussolini's powerful war machine moved across the Adriatic to invade the small nation.

Officially explained as a "necessary step" to protect Italians from hostile demonstrations, but seen as a move to establish an Italian protectorate, the invasion of Albania

Stars of Hollywood Draw Highest Pay

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 7—Wall Street may be America's financial center, but golden, glittering Hollywood is still the pay-off town for big salaries, the Treasury Department informed Congress today.

MARLENE DIETRICH
1937 Brought Her $370,000

Names of famous movie stars — Garbo, Crawford, Bennett, Loy, Shearer — studded the annual report of the nation's highest paid persons. Congress learned that movie companies paid 40 of the 63 salaries of $200,000 or more.

Greta Garbo, listed as the earner of $472,499 in 1937 and $190,000 in 1936, received more in a single year than any other star, man or woman, in the government list.

Her nearest competitor was also a woman, glamorous Marlene Dietrich, who made $370,000. Joan Crawford was paid $302,307 in 1936 and $351,538 in 1937, or a two-year total of $653,845.

GARBO LEADS ALL

Like their associates of stage and screen, Garbo, Dietrich and Crawford made more than the directors who boss them, but no one in any line of business equalled the 1937 pay of Louis B. Mayer, whose $1,161,753 as production executive of Loew's, Inc., was the largest corporation salary of the year.

Topnotchers among the Hollywood stars were Wallace Beery, $203,750 in 1936; Jeanette MacDonald, $219,400 in 1936 and $328,299 in 1937; Myrna Loy, $123,916 in 1936 and raised to $151,583 in 1937; Robert Taylor, $173,356 in 1937.

Lionel Barrymore was paid $129,174 in 1936, $132,739 the following year. His brother, John, received $33,333 in 1936 and $74,500 in 1937.

In 1936 Norma Shearer earned $150,000. The same year Robert Montgomery received $142,000 and in 1937 he was paid $243,250. Freddie Bartholomew's salary decreased slightly from $39,333 in 1936 to $36,899 in 1937.

Spencer Tracy received $115,000 in 1936, $91,750 the next year. From $47,541 in 1936 Nelson Eddy's pay jumped to $103,166.

GABLE TOP MAN

Clark Gable was top man among the screen actors over the two years, with $235,333 in 1936 and $289,000 in 1937. Other salaries reported for 1937 included:

Luise Rainer, $61,499; Francho Tone, $107,291; Edna Mae Oliver, $94,458; William Powell, $246,110; Madge Evans, $48,196; Eleanor Powell, $79,125; Una Merkel, $50,224; the late Jean Harlow, $104,967; Edmund Lowe, $105,416.

In an allied amusement field, Major Bowes with $427,817 was one of four persons to be numbered in the $400,000 class during 1937.

Katharine Cornell, Broadway's First Lady, earned $58,717.

For his news scoops and Broadway gossip, Walter Winchell earned $51,699 from the New York Daily Mirror and $150,000 for movie work. Believe it or not, but Robert L. Ripley, King Features cartoonist, received $149,777.

Lynn Bridegroom And $9869 Vanish

A 21-year-old employe of a Lynn armored car company was reported missing today with $9869 in payroll cash, allegedly stolen from a safe in the company's office.

The missing youth, Clayton Martin, a bridegroom of two months, immediately became the object of a New England-wide police search.

A warrant for his arrest was issued on complaint of his employers, the George P. Covert Armored Car Service of Market street, Lynn.

According to Charles Storey, foreman for the Covert company, Martin assisted last night in putting the $9869 payroll in a safe on the second floor.

The money had been taken to Lynn from a Boston bank and was to have been delivered today to the A. C. Lawrence Leather Company, Peabody.

Foreman Storey told Lynn police Martin was last seen when he supposedly closed the safe at 5 p. m. yesterday.

He was married two months ago and made his home with his wife in River street, Lynn, company records indicated.

SLAIN DIVORCEE'S 'LIFE MYSTERY' NOTE READ JURY

MRS. HELEN DARRAGH DALE
Death Notes Read in Knox Trial

Two notes, one bloodstained and both assertedly written by the now dead hand of Helen Darragh Dale, pretty divorcee, were read in superior court today at the trial of George T. Knox, former state trooper, charged with her murder.

Neither of the notes, one found under a table cover in Knox's Commonwealth avenue apartment where she was fatally shot two years ago, the other discovered only yesterday in her blood - stained brassiere, was addressed.

G. T. Knox

The table note read:

"If you really think I can take assault and battery you are quite mistaken. You will be punished as far as possible by law by me. Helen Dale."

FOUND LIFE A MYSTERY

The other note, which had been sewn into the brassiere she wore when shot through the left breast, said:

"All my life I wanted to know about everything. Why are we born? Why do we die? What causes tuberculosis, cancer, diseases?

"Why, why, why can't anyone tell me, or must I go on thinking and try to answer myself? I know that it is within me to try to do something to help. Why doesn't someone want to help those who want to help others?

"Old-fashioned but sure. Sincerely yours, Helen M. Dale."

Both notes were introduced as exhibits after Defense Counsel James McGrail had offered the brassiere note, with Assistant District Attorney Edward M. Sullivan objecting. This led to a bench conference and the agreement to introduce both was reached.

The session was adjourned at noon because of Good Friday, but before adjournment Police Sergt. Edward J. Seiboldt, ballistics expert, testified he had found two bullet holes in Knox's apartment in addition to the one made by the slug that fatally wounded the divorcee.

EXPERT ON STAND

These other two bullet holes were old ones, however, according to Sergt. Seiboldt, and were in the south or opposite wall.

It was while Seiboldt was on the stand earlier in the trial that Prosecutor Sullivan discovered the note hidden in the brassiere.

Just before the unusual discovery, Sergeant Seiboldt testified that it would have been possible, though difficult, in his opinion, for Mrs. Dale to have shot herself.

Cop Lends Cash To Pay Fines

When Maynard C. Grundle, 45, a farmer from Sherborn, didn't have enough money to pay three fines assessed against his son in Newton district court today, the arresting officer, Sergt. Patrick J. King stepped forward and lent him $10.

Grundle, whose farm is on Farm road, Sherborn, appeared for his son, Paul D. Grundle, 18, a student at Noble Greenough school. Judge Donald E. Mayberry assessed a fine of $10 for driving without a license, $10 for speeding, and $5 for having had no tail-light.

"But I've only got $15," protested Grundle.

"You look all right," rejoined Sergeant King. "I'll let you have the difference. You can mail it back to me."

Grundle promised he would, and paid the fine.

Benny Admits Offer To End Air Contract

HOLLYWOOD, April 7 (INS) — Back home from New York where he was fined $10,000 and placed on probation for jewel smuggling, Jack Benny, radio comedian, today said he wanted to "forget the whole thing."

"But," he added contritely, "it has been a darned good lesson."

Benny admitted he had offered to cancel his contract with his radio sponsors.

KILL POLICE BILL

By a roll call vote of 146 to 86, the House of Representatives has killed a bill to require policemen and firemen to retire at 65 years of age.

FIND SALEM MAN DAZED IN SO. END, BEATEN, ROBBED

Hatless and coatless and wandering aimlessly in the South End streets during a drenching rainstorm, Raymond Bernier, 23, Salem grocery store manager, was found today after a six-day search by police of several cities.

His face bruised and partially matted with blood, the youthful Salem husband, who has been missing since Saturday night, was unable to recognize his wife or identify himself and doctors said he was in critical condition.

BLANK STARE

Police learned his identity through papers in his pocket. They said he had no money and feared his apparent amnesia was caused by a brutal beating by whoever took the $190 Bernier had when last seen.

He was noticed by a policeman shortly after midnight as he trudged wearily along Tremont street, near Dover street.

At the Warren avenue police station he stared blankly as Lt. Max Thormer tried to learn his identity. Search of his clothing revealed he had no money, but a paper slip carried his name.

He was treated at City Hospital while his wife, Mary, was being driven to Boston. He failed to recognize her or an aunt he had known since boyhood, and was taken home by them.

At his home two Salem physicians ordered him confined to bed until a complete diagnosis of his ailment is made. He was apparently suffering from exposure and the results of head injuries which left scars along the entire right side of his face.

CAR ABANDONED

No word of Bernier or a second man, Lionel Bernier, 29, of Palmer street, Salem, a friend but no relative, had been received since they left a Salem bowling alley Saturday midnight.

Ten hours later Raymond Bernier's car was found abandoned in Lynn, its cushions stained with blood and the windshield mirror broken. An empty wallet and a gun holster, also empty, were found.

Fight $40,000 Blaze In S. Attleboro Plant

SOUTH ATTLEBORO, April 7—A three alarm fire which called out all Attleboro firemen and aid from nearby Pawtucket, R. I., destroyed the interior of the Loomis Brothers woodworking plant on Turne street here.

Cause of the blaze was undetermined. George Loomis, one of the owners, said the loss was about $40,000, partly covered by insurance.

Worshippers Throng All Churches for Good Friday

Throngs of worshippers filled Catholic and Protestant churches today as services of deepest solemnity commemorated the suffering of Christ on the original Good Friday.

Rev. William B. Foley celebrated the mass of the presanctified in Holy Cross Cathedral, while similar services were held in other Catholic churches throughout the city.

From noon until 3 p. m. the services will recall the agony of the Saviour on the Cross. City and state offices were to be closed in order for employes to join in the solemn three-hour worship.

Dr. Charles E. Raven, Regius professor of divinity at Cambridge University, England, preaches at the Three Hour Agony service in Trinity Church, Copley square.

DR. NASH PREACHER

In Christ Church, Cambridge, the preacher was to be Dr. Norman B. Nash, headmaster-elect of St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and president of the Massachusetts Council of Churches.

Seven prominent Protestant ministers, the Rev. Cecil Plumb, Dr. H. T. Coontz, the Rev. Frederick D. Bennett, the Rev. Alan L. Blacklock, the Rev. William Brattle Oliver, Dr. Samuel M. Lindsay and the Rev. Edward C. Camp arranged a union service to start at noon in the Church of the Covenant.

Nine clergymen prepared a union service for this noon in St. Luke's Church, Allston, and another union tre ore service was to be held in the Second Church, Dorchester.

At Emmanuel Church, the Rev. Phillips Endecott Osgood was scheduled to deliver seven short addresses during the noon service. Tonight, choirs of Emmanuel, Copley Methodist and Church of the Covenant congregations will sing Bach chorales at Emmanuel Church.

NOVENA SERVICES

During the afternoon, at the cathedral, the regular Friday novena services will be held with the "Via Matris" ceremonies. Services will be held at 2 o'clock, 3:30 o'clock, 5:30 o'clock and 6:30 o'clock, and at each of these services a Lenten sermon will be preached. Tonight at 8 o'clock the Lenten services will be held, with the stations of the cross and a sermon by the Rev. Michael F. Costello.

IN OTHER CHURCHES

The mass of the presanctified, at the Immaculate Conception Church, Harrison avenue, was at 8 o'clock. At the service of the Three Hours' Agony the discourses will be given by the Rev. Ignatius W. Cox, S. J., professor of philosophy at Fordham University. Reading of prayers will be given by the Rev. Edward J. Sullivan, S. J.

At St. Clement's Church, in the Fenway, the preacher during the Three Hours' Agony will be the Rev. Francis L. Keenan. At St. James Church, Harrison avenue, South End, the preacher will be the Rev. Raymond J. McInnis, S. J., of Weston College.

SOLEMN processional of boys' choir is shown here in interior of Cathedral of the Holy Cross. Today thousands of Bostonians filled churches throughout the city for Good Friday services.

Peggy Fears' Appeal Heard by High Court

The full bench of Supreme Court today took under consideration the appeal of Peggy Fears, stage and movie actress, from a Dedham superior court of her bill in equity seeking to collect $10,999 from her estranged husband.

In the bill, the actress charges that her husband, A. C. Blumenthal, New York producer and realtor, transferred a large part of his interest in Eastern Theaters, Inc., to his Brookline sister, Mrs. Miriam Rogers, so that Peggy could not attach it in New York.

Before the full bench today, Attorney Herbert B. Ehrmann, representing Blumenthal and Mrs. Rogers, argued that the case is one outside of Massachusetts jurisdiction and that under Massachusetts law a wife may not sue her husband under these circumstances.

Attorney Lee M. Friedman, counsel for Peggy Fears, did not appear in person but filed a brief with the court.

State College Head Opposes Tax Plan

President Hugh P. Baker of the Massachusetts State College today entered the lists against Governor Saltonstall on the governor's plan to slash costs in all state departments by 10 per cent.

FAIR SKIES DUE FOR EASTER HERE

Clearing skies and a prediction of fair weather for the Easter week-end brought crowds of shoppers into downtown Boston stores today.

By train, bus and automobile, hundreds of persons came to the city from distant towns to take advantage of a multitude of Easter sale offers.

Because of the school holiday, mothers and children formed a large part of the shopping crowds.

Dozens of extra traffic police officers were assigned to the store district to insure the safety of throngs which overflowed the sidewalks.

In most downtown churches, today's Good Friday services were especially scheduled to convenience those wishing to combine church attendance with Easter shopping.

HOME OWNERS SEEK $10,835 DAMAGES IN PLANE CRASH

More than a dozen persons—owners, tenants and builders of six East Braintree homes damaged when two navy planes crashed during launching ceremonies at Fore River—testified today at Squantum naval air base before the naval board seeking to fix damages.

At completion of the testimony, Adelbert B. Sciklas, representative of the board, estimated the total damage, exclusive of house furnishings, at $10,835.

The board's findings will be forwarded to Washington to be passed upon in a court of claims, a quasi-legal body designed to make adjustments in such cases.

CAN APPEAL CLAIMS

Claimants not satisfied with the judgment of the claims court may, through their congressmen or senators, obtain passage of a special act entitling them to sue the government.

In this event the claims will go before a jury.

Also to be forwarded to Washington are findings of the naval board inquiring into causes of the tragedy.

Just before this latter investigation was completed, Lieutenant J. S. Dodge, who was flying No. 3 plane in the fatal flight, was recalled as a witness.

With model planes, he illustrated his version of how the mid-air collision between Plane No. 6 and Plane No. 5 occurred, with the left wing of 6 striking the right wing of 5.

Before the inquiry board yesterday, Captain E. L. Gunther, aviation officer assigned to the newly-launched airplane carrier Wasp, testified that flying conditions were "perfectly normal" when the two planes, in a flight of six from Squantum, collided in mid-air, then crashed.

RITES HELD FOR VICTIM

Funeral services for one of victims, Cadet Ellsworth Benson of Newton Highlands, were today. Those for the others, Lieutenant-Commander Waldo H. Brown of Milton, socially prominent sportsman; Walter Kirk of Wollaston, chief carpenter's mate, and John Ausiello off Revere, chief machinist's mate, will be tomorrow.

The Rev. Richard R. Beasley, rector of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, Randolph avenue, Milton, will officiate at services for Lieutenant-Commander Brown in the church at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Milton Cemetery.

MILITARY ESCORT

A military escort from Squantum will escort the body to the cemetery. Six naval officers from the same base will be active bearers.

Honorary bearers will be Russell S. Codman, Jr., Palmer C. Putnam, Harry E. Noyes, Frank A. Day, Jr., J. Gunningham Gray, Jr., Edward S. Brewer, Crocker Snow, Frank C. Paine, John Lavalle, Richard V. Wakeman and Charles E. Welch.

Services for Benson, son of Mrs. Eleif Benson of Dickerman road, Newton Highlands, a teacher in that city, were today at 2 p. m. at the Crosby Memorial Chapel, 867 Beacon street, Boston. Burial was to be in the National Cemetery at Arlington, Va., Monday.

MRS. BESSIE BENNETT

She'd Divorce Auto Wrecker

Joseph Bennett of Everett, who lost a court decision when he contended a husband has a right to wreck his wife's car to keep her from gallivanting around, is on the way to losing his wife also.

Mrs. Bessie Bennett filed suit to divorce him in Middlesex court.

Mrs. Bennett, who caused her husband's arrest after he and Edward Aspel, 21, of Perrin street, Charlestown, pushed her car over a cliff in Somerville, alleges he was cruel, abusive and used intoxicants to excess. They were married in Newport, R. I., August 31, 1928, and separated January 17, 1938. There is one child, Norma, 5.

Bennett, after his arrest, set up the defense that what belonged to his wife also belonged to him, and that he had a right to destroy the car. Judge Williard D. Gray disagreed and sentenced him to three months in jail.

Youth, 2 Girls, Die In Crossing Crash

CAMDEN, N. J., April 7 (AP)—A young man and two girls were killed today in the collision of their car and a Pennsylvania-Reading Seashore Line train just outside Camden.

The young man was identified by cards in his pocket as Stanley J. Guischard, 21, of Philadelphia. The girls were not immediately identified.

Woman's Courage Foils Lynn Bandit

Because she is a woman of proven courage and resource, Mrs. Mary Hines, 30, of Boston street, Lynn, today is still in possession of her auto, her pocketbook and her life.

Mrs. Hines stopped her car at a traffic light in Market square, Lynn, while visiting churches for Holy Thursday.

An 18-year-old youth opened the rear door, put a pistol to her face, and said:

"Let's go! When the light changes, start for Revere!"

"I had visions of being tossed out into the Lynn marshes and maybe being hurt or having any prospective baby hurt," she said today. "So, though he had a pistol at my face, I kept saying: 'I can't! I just can't! I can't!'"

"When the light changed the car behind honked for me to move, but this man put his hand out the window, still holding the gun on me, and motioned it to go ahead, and the car pulled around without noticing a thing.

"Then I said: 'I think I'm going to faint,' and I fell forward on the wheel. He jumped out."

After it was all over, said Mrs. Hines, she started to go to church but she became so nervous thinking it over she was almost hysterical.

Then, she explained, she went to the home of a friend, who called police.

$3000 Salaries OK to Solons

A majority in the Massachusetts House of Representatives has agreed to vote itself at least $3000 in individual salaries for the next two years, an unofficial poll reported today.

Representative Roland D. Sawyer of Ware said 148 of the 240 House members had signed a petition endorsing his bill providing for a $3000 two-year salary for legislators, while 70 members are yet to be polled.

With the advent of biennial sessions, the legislators ordinarily would receive only $2000 for the next two years, whereas in the past they have been paid $2000 for each annual session.

SET FUEL STRIKE FOR MONDAY

A fuel truck strike Monday, involving more than 3000 drivers and threatening complete tieup of coal and oil deliveries in metropolitan Boston, seemed imminent today.

"I do not see now how such a strike can be avoided," Raymond V. McNamara of the state board of arbitration and conciliation said, after a series of conferences which ended with union officials and employers apparently hopelessly deadlocked.

According to McNamara, the fuel truck drivers have agreed to accept a 13-cent cut in their hourly wage, to be effective during the six months of the year when they work a full 48 hours a week.

During the less busy six months, when they work less than 48 hours a week, they would receive their present full pay scale of 88 cents an hour.

Agreement to accept the half-year cut was conditional, however, on willingness of employers to have annual contracts with the union terminate December 1, each year, instead of April 1.

This change of date was flatly refused by employers, bringing negotiations to a close and making the strike apparently an only recourse of the drivers, McNamara said.

Final vote on the strike is to be taken tomorrow.

WELFARE 'RING' TO TELL ALL

Many North Enders on the "ghost" payroll of the welfare department are about to turn state's evidence, according to Charles S. Sullivan, Jr., assistant corporation counsel. He is prosecuting the cases.

After Judge Joseph Zotolli had issued 33 larceny warrants at Sullivan's request, the latter told the court 13 of the men charged with receiving weekly pay on welfare cards without doing any work had admitted how they did it.

He said they told how they went to a city yard with cards which were stamped and then signed with the name of an inspector, the signature being allegedly forged, according to Sullivan.

Atty. Sullivan also stated that three former city employes had been arrested for complicity and that their cases are pending in superior court. He said each of the North End recipients against whom warrants were issued yesterday had obtained an average of $100 and that the total sum involved in the alleged fraud was $3340.

Deanna Elope? Silly, Says Ma

HOLLYWOOD, April 7 (INS)—A report published in New York that Deanna Durbin and Vaughn Paul, an assistant director, might elope, met with an emphatic denial today by the mother of the young film star.

"Nothing could be more silly. Deanna is much too young and such a marriage would not stand in court," said Mrs. Ada Durbin.

The mother denied—although Hollywood gossips would dispute this—that a romance exists between Deanna and the young assistant director, who is the son of Val Paul, former Universal Studio head.

Doyle Opposes Vacation Plan

Step rate vacations for state institution employes up to four weeks a year would necessitate an increase of 228 permanent employes at an added cost of $250,000 annually, William F. Doyle, state personnel director, told the legislature's public service committee.

Opposing the plan, which was recommended by a special recess commission, Doyle favored instead another commission recommendation that employes be given a sick leave of 15 days annually, accumulative up to 10 years.

N. E. Scientists Find Light Aids Breeding

By Associated Press

By artificially creating an atmosphere of spring with electric light bulbs, a group of scientists reported today, out-of-season breeding can be induced in "commercially valuable birds and animals."

Adding further evidence to previous studies along this line, Drs. Arthur Kirshbaum, Carroll A. Pfeiffer and Jean Van Heuverswyn of the Yale University School of Medicine, told the American Association of Anatomists today that "seven hours additional light" in October, November and December had made young male sparrows "ready for mating within six weeks" although the normal breeding period was spring.

Light stimulates the pituitary bodies of the sparrows, it was explained, and ultimately, the reproductive principles.

Here Is Albanian Prize Duce Wants

By the Associated Press

Here are the facts on Albania, against which Italian troops moved today:

GEOGRAPHY: 10,629 square miles, (slightly larger than Vermont and Rhode Island together) on the Adriatic only 45 miles from Italy at the narrowest point, bordered by Yugoslavia and Greece. Mountainous, with fertile plateaus and intervening long, narrow valleys.

POPULATION: 1,003,124, Albanians or Arnauts, with an Indo-European language, Clannish, frequently in tribal conflict.

IMPORTANCE: To Italy, first as a source of presently undeveloped oil and miner sources; second, as an area strategically important for domination of the Adratic sea and the Balkans. British fear Italian occupation could provide a point for Italian-German action against Yugoslavia and Greece and make ineffective the British plan for a grand defensive alliance to check Nazi-Fascist expansion.

GOVERNMENT—Monarchy under King Zog, 43, who in the past borrowed money from Italy to develop his primitive country. His Queen, Geraldine, is 23, of American-Hungarian descent. Their first son was born Wednesday.

ARMY—In 1915: 812 officers, 13,305 men. Four motorboats for coast guard service make up the "navy."

HISTORY—Belonged to Turkey in 1431. Accorded independence in 1912; thereafter troubled frequently by revolt until Zog, who had been President from 1924, was proclaimed King on September 1, 1928.

RELIGION—Predominantly Mohammedan.

ZOG NOW EX-KING TO ROME

ROME, April 7 (INS)—Elimination of King Zog as ruler of Albania was strongly indicated today by Virginio Gayda, famous Fascist editor who frequently acts as spokesman for Premier Mussolini.

Unleashing a bitter attack on Zog, Gayda wrote:

"The king tried to govern like a feudal tyrant. He took no notice of the elementary needs of his people.

"He was greedy for money for his own caprices and he was ambitious and irresponsible.

"He was a man who prepared infernal discord and international intrigue. He transformed the generous financial, economic and political help he received from Italy into almost the exclusive use of his own personal income, notwithstanding the existence of accords and frequent remonstrance from Italy."

Observers in Rome grimly pointed to the significance of Gayda's use of the past tense in his references to Zog.

WINDSORS AFRICA-BOUND

PARIS, April 6 (INS)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor were off today on a rail and ship voyage to Morocco. They will travel by way of Marseilles and expect to arrive in Africa April 24.

Urge Trust Fund Bill For Episcopalians

At a public hearing before the legislative committee on mercantile affairs, Bishop William Lawrence, Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill, Charles E. Good Ole Nev! He Helps the Umbrella Men

CHICAGO, April 7 (AP)—Sam Monson, who has been an umbrella repairman for 42 years, applied for his annual peddler's license and was reminded by Detective Edward Fitzgerald that last year he said he was going to retire.

"I can't retire now," the 74-year-old umbrella man said. "It's that fellow in England—Chamberlain. He's made everybody umbrella conscious. Business is booming."

DENY REGULARS RESISTED

Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax decided to remain in London despite the Easter recess of Parliament when news of the Italian attack in Albania reached him.

The Premier's spokesman denied that Italians had met resistance from the regular Albanian army.

"According to information reaching London," the spokesman declared in a statement, "Italian troops landed at four points on the Albanian coast today and met with slight resistance from Albanian irregular troops.

Pope Keeps Eye On Albania War; Drafts Appeal

ROME, April 7 (INS)—Reports that Pope Pius XII is revising the "peace" speech he plans to deliver Easter Sunday so as to deal with Italy's invasion of Albania were authoritatively denied today.

Officials said the pontiff did not intend to deal with political matters in his address, save that he was expected to make a general appeal for peace.

The Pope was said to be closely following events in Albania, but was represented as "not unduly agitated."

120 WARSHIPS AID

One hundred and seventy Italian war vessels were reported in Belgrade dispatches to Paris as participating in the invasion. Off Santa Quaranta there were 75, off Valona 40, off Durazzo 35, off San Giovanni di Medua 28, with 10 near Bisiipal.)

No official explanation of the Italian invasion was given in Rome beyond the statement that it was intended to protect Italian subjects.

Pamphlets dropped on Tirana by Italian planes said the invaders would remain for "the necessary time to restore order, justice and peace."

Virginio Gayda, frequently a spokesman for Premier Mussolini asserted "Italy enters Albania without intending to exercise hard domination or conquest."

Italian Air Bombers, 160 Warships in Raid

BELGRADE, April 7 (INS)—Italian bombing planes destroyed large portions of the harbors of Durazzo, Valona and San Giovanni de Medua during the invasion of Albania today, according to dispatches from Tirana received in Belgrade.

One hundred and sixty Italian warships, including 16 cruisers were reported to have taken part in the invasion.

The Albanian political leader Mediphrasili, was reported to have sent a defiant message to Mussolini.

"You have many soldiers," the message said. "You can annihilate Albania and wipe out all our men. But you will conquer the country only over the bodies of our men, and then our women will fight."

The cabinet met at noon to discuss the critical situation. It was reported Yugoslav official circles feared further Italian pressure on the Balkan states.

(A Belgrade dispatch to Exchange Telegraph in London reported King Zog had called upon the Yugoslav government for help against the invaders, but that Belgrade had refused in view of the Italo-Yugoslav treaty of friendship.

(A short wave radio station at Tirana was reported to be continually broadcasting in five languages today an appeal to Albanians to unite in resisting the Italians "to the last drop of blood.")

HITLER WARNS ALL HE'S BACKING DUCE

BERLIN, April 7 (AP)—Officials announced today Germany was backing Italy in Albania and would not "understand if We [illegible] to interfere with Mussolini [illegible]

[illegible]

"Germany has complete understanding of Il Duce's action and regards it as within the spirit of the 1937 Italo-German friendship treaty, one official said.

[illegible]

Italy naturally cannot tolerate continued unrest so near to her shores and attacks upon Italian citizens, he added.

[illegible]

[illegible]

At the same time, Hitler's paper said only two German "wishes" stood between Germany and Poland - Return of a small enclosed area and a free route to the German northeast."

Tobin Shocked Over Albania, Warns America

Shocked by the actual outbreak [illegible]

"Keep America for Americans."

[illegible]

"The plain duty of the United States government is to maintain the peace, happiness and prosperity of the American people.

"George Washington's advice [illegible]

"In the United States we have nearly every natural resource. What few things we lack we can get from our friendly neighbors of the Western Hemisphere.

"There hasn't been a 20-year in the last five centuries when the map of Europe hasn't changed. In 1917 and 18 we sent 2,000,000 soldiers to Europe, supposedly to make the world safe for democracy. Present European conditions prove conclusively that our effort was in vain.

"The same propoganda that prepared the American people for the World War is again very evident."

$1,000 DIET

"The way to beauty and glamour"

Dr. Benjamin Gayelord Hauser

Vital vitamins . . . that's the answer to figures gloriously slim and bubbling joyous vitality!

Marion Talley, Billie Burke, Claudette Colbert and some of the Continent's most beautiful women have found their way to justly famous slenderness and vibrant health through Dr. Benjamin Gayelord Hauser's advice on nutrition and dieting.

Recently he made up a diet for a member of the French nobility in Europe—and the fee was $1000! This is the diet you will find in the Sunday Advertiser and which will continue every day in the Daily Record.

The secret of the success of such amazing women as the Duchess of Windsor, Lady Charles Mendl and Mrs. Harrison Williams, he declares in his Boston lectures, is their abundance of health and high spirits, the natural result of conscientious dieting. Yet it is dieting which in no way leaves one hungry or unsatisfied. That's his secret, and he'll give it to you.

ST. LOUIS, April 7 (AP)—Federal agents who shot down bandit Benny Dickson as he grabbed for his guns searched all known hideouts today for his pretty, blonde gun-girl wife, Estelle.

The Dicksons were wanted for three kidnapings, two bank robberies and car theft.

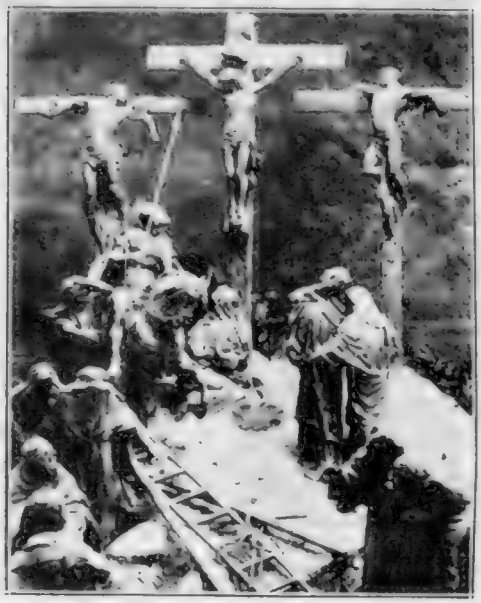
The Life of Christ

CHAPTER THIRTY-EIGHT



"And with Him they crucified two thieves; the one on His right hand, and the other on His left." —St Mark XV, 27

By COLLIN CLINE

GOOD FRIDAY Christianity's most sorrowful day, commemorates our Saviour's crucifixion reverently depicted here by the great Italian artist Domenico Mastroianni.

Wicked men became the agents of the innocent Jesus. His body and face torn by the knotted whips of Pilate's soldiers. A crown of thorns had been pressed down upon His head until His scalp was a mass of wounds. The rough wood of the cross had cut deeply into the flesh of His shoulder. And, though exhausted by pain and loss of blood, He had been forced to carry the heavy beam on which He was to die.

Beyond Calvary, called by the Jews Golgotha, the "place of a skull," was reached. Upon the cross-beam the soldiers spread Christ's body and extended His arms. Then they drove home the hammer blows that pierced a crude spike.

And yet He was able to raise His eyes to Heaven and pray:

"Father forgive them for they know not what they do."

The Blessed Virgin Mary saw Her mother-weeping comforted her daughter. Her anguish and called John His favorite disciple to care for her.

A [illegible] afternoon when a great darkness [illegible] and the ground shook violently, [illegible] the cross heard Jesus cry:

"Father, into Thy hands I commend My Spirit. It is finished."

But he would [illegible] with more [illegible] interest the skulls of savages who were half-ape of years ago, even from the skeletons of the Ape-man [illegible]

Camilla

by Anne Stretton, who wrote 'PROPOSAL'

Who's Who and What's Happened:

CAMILLA and MARK might have come into a fine inheritance if their father, a famous but eccentric writer, had married their mother. But this he neglected to do, and when he died he left no provision for his children. He did, however, leave a life interest in the house to their mother.

GLADYS, who had to marry for security for Camilla and Mark. And he willed the house to Gladys.

SIMON, a cousin. Simon managed the estate efficiently and was occasionally corresponding with Camilla and Mark but not much was known about this strange family as Camilla and Mark kept proudly aloof from the townspeople. They had no idea Simon was in love until the day he brought his fiancee.

EVELYN, to Dore. Evelyn was shocked to find the house so shabby. With pitying curiosity she tried to find out what Mark could remember about his father. Afterward Mark and Cam... agreed to end their visit.

Camilla and Mark had gotten up early and saddled their ponies. Then they had hung around waiting for Simon.

CHAPTER FIVE

STARING at her reflection Gladys tried to believe that the reflection would give back the look of youth to her face. As her eyes, rather hard, scrutinized her own face, picking up the brush, began to brush her hair.

Out of a long habit Mark stood with the small of his back against the door, so that Gladys couldn't close it.

It was funny how much she was like Camilla. Gladys looked in the mirror with a hint, hard, had grown so much like Camilla with the passing of the years.

Mark and Cam... [illegible] back to their home. Mark [illegible] Cam... [illegible] Mark [illegible] Cam... [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Rapid Awakening To Social Needs

By MERRYLE STANLEY RUKEYSER
International News Service Economic Commentator

IN THE WEST [illegible] INS — In all parts of the country there appears to be an awakening to the need for better social planning as a better industrial tool for handling the new complexities within the framework of the American democratic system.

[illegible]

"To develop facts as they relate to our economic and therefore our political problems, is frequently a disagreeable job because such a study often forces us to the conclusion that unless we change our course and make some painful readjustments we may be facing a decline rather than a increase in our standard of living."

[illegible]

"Of this limited area, only 2,000,000 acres are cultivated. In common with most western states, which are still made up largely of public lands, the indebtedness incurred in developing the privately owned area is in large, held outside the state and the interest outgo on this mortgage debt is a continuous draught on the state's economy. Much of the public debt is likewise held outside the state with resulting interest outgo."

Austen Lake:

NEWS FROM EIRE: APRIL'S STORY

THERE MAY BE NO SPORT IN THIS. But a letter has just come with a pink, shilling stamp of Eire in the corner and penned in the copper-plate hand of the schoolmaster of Ballydehob, West Cork. He writes that among the dark crags the wine-red heather is blossoming, the gorse is sprawling and there is a checkered carpet of greens and browns over the gentle slope to the sea.

The rain, writes John Barry, has stopped sweeping from the heathery hood of Mt. Gabriel and the mountain rills that tumbled all winter, streams which bubbled and came brown from the deep pools of the peat bogs, have dwindled to thin amber ribbons.

AUSTEN LAKE

Sweet vernal life is coming to West Cork, he says, and already the farmers have stripped the haycocks of their canvas covers, under which they have lain against the strong gusty squalls from Bantry Bay and the coves of Kerry. Housewives have opened their half-doors and plumes of curling smoke arise from the chimney pots on the rush-roofed cottages. The virginal, growing things are changing the fields to salad and parrot greens and the black faced sheep are being driven back to the heatherline on the mountain commons.

So writes John Barry, with his track for glorifying simple things.

BILL'S SPORT-O-GRIMES

The Bruins and the Maple Leafs are far from frisky today . . . And, it will be another day at least before they recover from the effects of last night's game . . . The weather, ice and smoke were not conductive to good hockey . . .

King Clancy

Bob Murphy, the Garden super

was a nervous wreck before the end of last night's tilt . . . The muggy weather had softened his ice and because of the rain Bob didn't dare turn on the Garden blowers to clear away the thick smoke for fear of a film or fog forming over on the ice . . . Bobby Bauer was pretty well bottled up during the Ranger series . . . In fact, he was loose on just one occasion when in scoring position . . . And, he scored . . . His third period goal, which gave the Bruins a 2 to 1 decision over the Leafs, was a beautiful play and a remarkable display of Bauer's fighting qualities . . .

Just before the Leafs took to the ice, Coach Dick Irvin waved "Turk" Broda's goal stick down to regulation dimensions . . . Dick Portland, who played with a stick four inches shorter than he has been using looked much better handling the puck . . . Harvey "Busher" Jackson, for a player who hasn't seen much service of late due to a bad knee, played great hockey . . . He looked like the "Busher" of old . . . Bill MacBrien and Ed Bickle, who are directors of the Maple Leaf Gardens, will be here for Sunday's game . . .

Among the visitors from Toronto were Ted Kennedy, Conn Smythe, Frank Selke, Charlie Querrie, Mac Colville, Sweeney Schriner, Lorne Chabot, Wally Fiske and Miss Lucy Fraser . . . They were all at the Maple Leaf Gardens . . . Fraser, by the way, is a swell guy to have . . . He showed some of the fast repartee . . . Mel Hill and Bill Cowley started that . . . Some one asked Fraser, "Are you going to Kentucky?" . . . Fraser replied, "Why, Ky, Conn Smythe says we'll be pen to get to the Preakness, Belmont, Travers and Jockey Club Stakes and have a crack at Mahmoud with a shot at the Kentucky Derby . . .

Dr John Rush and Dr Horace MacIntyre are with the Leafs . . . For the first time since the play offs started, the Kraut line didn't start last night . . . Art Ross sent Bill Cowley, Mel Hill and Roy Conacher out for the opening face off . . . An early penalty to Bill Cowley set the Bruins back on their heels . . . Eddie Shore, Jack Portland and Pat Clapper erased themselves in the paths of flying skates last night and got nicked . . .

Frankie Brimsek has the "flu" . . . After the game his temperature was between 99 and 100 . . . Were Cooney Weiland's and Ringo Kampman's faces red, when Mickie Ion refused to give penalties for their exchange of blows on the boards in the second period? . . . I'll say they were . . . Frank Calder flew in from Montreal yesterday and returned this morning to attend Jimmy Strachan's funeral . . . The Leafs were very much short handed while Syl Apps and Gordie Drillon were holding hands in the penalty box . . . The Bruins is going around in circles . . . He's waiting news of a new arrival in his family . . .

Bauer Beats Maple Leafs In Solo Dash

the Rangers series tonight's game lacked color. But you cannot expect any team to play the hockey night in and night out that we showed against Lester Pat Duke Charges. These players are only human, and there is a limit to their stamina.

We haven't recovered from the first round. And in fairness to Toronto I don't believe Smythe's players are over the effects of that Detroit series yet.

But give us some favorable weather and we will show you a game on Sunday that'll give you something to rave about, for Leafs series is going to get tougher and tougher as it progresses.

Incidentally, Leafs and Maple Leaf Gardens are not the same . . .

Pate May Pair Wood With Mako in Cup Play

NEW YORK April 7 (AP)—Walter Pate, the little man who brain-waved the Davis Cup back to these shores two years ago, has issued a clarion call for volunteers to step forward to the front and lend a hand in retaining the elegant silver turd bath.

Pate is the captain of the Davis Cup team which means he manages it much in the manner of a fight manager coddling a stable of welterweights. His [illegible] in 1937 and 1938 was [illegible] a breeze is something else again this year.

WOOD SMART

Riggs and Sabin are the best bets for the singles posts and Pate is toying with the idea of teaming Wood with Mako as a doubles combination.

Wood never has been as good a singles as he was in 1931 when he won the Wimbledon title, but he has an idea the New Yorker's keen strategy and judgment would team well with Mako's durability.

Sisti Ready Another Year | C. F. Adams Goes North With Bees

ORLANDO, Fla., April 7—Casey Stengel has already agreed to return 18-year-old Sisti to Hartford for additional seasoning. In another year Sisti should be prepared to win a regular berth with the Bees.

C. F. ADAMS

It has been several years since I have seen a young ball player with as much natural ability as Sisti. The latter can play either shortstop or third base, while he takes a healthy swing at the ball when batting.

Sisti has proved a good student of baseball, and has improved after listening to the words of advice poured from the lips of Casey Stengel, Mike and George Kelly.

Phil Masi, young catcher, continues to shape up well in the practice games, and he will be retained as understudy to Al Lopez. Masi, like Sisti, has proved a good student. Al Lopez has taken Masi in hand and has been teaching him all the tricks of backstopping.

THE CINCINNATI Reds have won the support of those fans and experts who have seen them in action in Florida. Many of the baseball writers are picking the Reds to win the National League pennant.

Bill Werber, former Red Sox player, is at third base for the Reds and has been hitting particularly well. It is expected that Bill McKechnie will be able to control this temperamental player.

The Cardinals have also looked good in the South, and they are expected to be in there battling for the pennant from the start.

Strange as it may seem, few experts are picking the Cubs, last year's National League champions to win the pennant this year.

It is agreed that the Bees have a stronger club than they had in 1938 and that they will make a stout-hearted bid for a berth in the first division.

For the first time since he has been with the Bees Casey Stengel has an abundance of replacement material.

CHARLES F. ADAMS will make the trip North with the Bees . . . Adams says he has turned over the matter of getting suitable horses for Suffolk Downs to Racing Secretary Charley McLennan, one of the highest paid racing executives in the country . . . McLennan gets $25,000 from Suffolk Downs, $30,000 from Hialeah Park, and $20,000 more from Maryland tracks . . . Bill Shelley, racing secretary at Narragansett Park, has taken over McLennan's former duties at the Chicago tracks . . . McLennan gave up his Chicago jobs when he signed with Suffolk . . . Shelley has 1400 of the leading thoroughbreds for the Narragansett Park meeting that opens on April 22 . . . Shelley completes his duties at Tropical Park on next Monday, and will then journey to Narragansett Park to prepare for the Rhode Island meeting.

Tom Thorp will stop off at his home in New York while en route from Florida to the Narragansett meeting . . . Tom will once more act as a steward at each of the New England tracks.

It has been quite warm in Florida during the past two weeks, and horsemen are anxious to ship to Narragansett Park as soon as possible . . . Even the ball players think the weather here is too hot.

Champ to Meet Tuesday Victor

Melio Bettina, light heavyweight champion of the world in New York State, will meet the winner of next Tuesday's Tiger Jack Fox-Al Gainer fight at Mechanics Building, Promoter Eddie Mack announced today.

The bout will be staged the night of April 25, Mack said, after conferring with Jimmy Grippo, manager of Bettina, here.

Melio Bettina

Bettina stopped Fox in nine rounds for the title last winter, but Fox had just emerged from the hospital.

The Tiger, who stopped Lou Brouillard in his first start here and then returned to draw with Tony Shucco in a stirring battle, is eager to get another crack at Bettina, so will go all out against Gainer.

Martin Riley of Fall River, who recently stopped Jerry Zullo of Chelsea in the fifth round, takes the place of Pat Foley of Worcester against Johnny Cabello in a second ten.

Boston Castoffs Make Reds Potential N. L. Champions

By Joe Cashman

LEXINGTON, N. C., April 7—Cincinnati will owe Boston a rousing vote of thanks if the Reds win the National League pennant.

Both the Bees and the Red Sox have made valuable contributions to the Ohio entry, directly or otherwise.

Bob Quinn permitted Manager Bill McKechnie and Coach "Hank" Gowdy to move from the Hive to the Rhineland.

Reds' bosses are so satisfied with Wilkinsburg Will that they already have signed him to remain on the job through 1942.

The Swarm also is responsible for the presence of Johnny "No Hit" Vander Meer and Wally Berger on the Cincinnati roster.

Vander Meer, if you've forgotten, was once a Braves' farmer.

During that hectic 1935-36 era, when the Allston outfit was next to being bankrupt and homeless, all was confusion in the organization and, in the midst of it, the only pitcher even to turn in two successive perfect games or even two in the same season, was permitted to fall into the toils of the Reds.

With so many big problems demanding immediate solution if the franchise were to be saved, nobody had any time to be concerned about an insignificant busher.

BERGER SHUNTED ABOUT

In Berger's case, the Bees made it possible for him to land with the Reds by trading him to the Giants, who, in turn, sold him to the Onions.

Another Redleg with an interesting Boston background is Pitcher Bill "Bucky" Walters, who is as highly regarded by McKechnie as any of his aces.

Both Boston clubs had a hand in guiding "Bucky" to his present berth.

Originally an infielder, he was brought up to the majors the first time by the Braves in 1931. He failed to make the grade and was eventually turned loose.

He returned to the big show as a Red Sox third-sacker in 1934, General Manager Eddie Collins having bought him while on a scouting expedition through the Coast League.

HARRIS GIVES UP

Again he flopped as an infielder. Stanley Harris, then Hose pilot, toyed with the idea of trying to convert him into a pitcher. But, instead, asked waivers on him.

The Phillies put in a claim and got "Bucky" for $7500.

Manager Jimmy Wilson, now a Reds' coach, lost little time in trying the kid out on the mound. And under the catcher-pilot's expert handling, "Bucky" soon was an outstanding flinger. The Reds gave $35,000 and two players to the Quakers for him last summer.

Another erstwhile New England favorite who has become a Cincinnati hero is Billy Werber. Wilful Will had the greatest seasons of his career as he won the third-base job Walters had been counted on filling in 1934.

Then Willie became too temperamental to satisfy Fenway foremen and he was finally traded to the A's for "Pinky" Higgins before the '37 campaign.

The Reds a few weeks back paid a reported $25,000 to the Macks to get him as their regular third sacker.

BEES MADE REDS

The Rhinelanders would be just another ball club without the men for whom they have Boston to thank.

Park Dept. Opens Umpires' School

Following a lapse of seven years, the Boston Park Department A. A. will open an Umpires' School for the training of baseball arbiters, with the first session at Vine Street Gym, Roxbury, next Tuesday, at eight p. m., Commissioner William P. Long announces.

The first session will have National League Umpire-in-Chief Ernie Quigley as lecturer, and weekly sessions for six weeks will be conducted with a different American or National League umpire as speaker.

ZAMPARELLI ON SCRATCH IN CATHEDRAL 10-MILE

Andrew "Hawk" Zamparelli will be scratch man in the 29th annual Cathedral Club ten-mile road race which will be staged tomorrow afternoon at 3.

Hawk Zamparelli

A field of 100 runners is expected to face the starter's gun tomorrow, with Ray Eiland third in the recent ten-mile Presentation run; Tony Parkell, former winner of the event; Fran's Brown, North Medford; Roger Labonte and John Simkonis among the entrants.

Norfolk Y. M. A. has entered 21 runners and should walk off with the team prize again.

The race starts in front of the Cathedral Club house on Union Park street, thence to Harrison avenue, to Massachusetts avenue, to Southampton street, to Andrew square, to Dorchester street, to Broadway, around Farragut Park to Castle Island, to the Strandway, to Columbia road, to Massachusetts avenue, to Harrison avenue, back to the clubhouse.

Rowe Sets 18 Wins As Comeback Goal

(By the Associated Press)

SUMTER, N. C., April 7—Schoolboy Rowe has set his 1939 pitching goal at 18 victories for the Detroit Tigers.

Rowe scrawled the figure over his name in the Lakewood, Fla., clubhouse before the Bengals started North. Their first stop was for a game with the Brooklyn Dodgers today.

NEW ORLEANS—Observers in the Cleveland Indians' camp are ready to concede Mel Harder the opening day pitching assignment against St. Louis Browns a week from Tuesday.

Manager Oscar Vitt already has disclosed Bob Feller would work the second game. Johnny Allen probably won't be ready due to the slow conditioning of his arm after last winter's operation.

ABILENE, Tex.—Checking up on his pitchers while awaiting today's tussle with the Chicago White Sox, Manager Pie Traynor discovered young Truett Sewell, batting practice and bull pen pitcher last year, is now the leading hurler of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He hasn't allowed a single run in the 13 innings he has worked this spring.

• • •

GASTONIA, N. C.—Lean Lon Warneke, St. Louis Cardinals' veteran right-hander, was assigned to a nine-inning trick today against the Gastonia nine. The Cardinals played without Johnny Mize, the slugging first baseman, who remained in Atlanta, where his mother was to undergo an operation today.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex.—Anxious for first-hand study of Pitcher Gene Lillard, who may be a starter for the Chicago Cubs, Manager Gabby Hartnett decided to take over the catching chore himself in today's game with the St. Louis Browns.

Lillard was a flop three years ago in a tryout as a Cub hurler, but has been looking great this spring as a pitcher. In his last start he shut out the Chicago White Sox, 2 to 0.

LYNWOOD 'SCHOOLBOY' ROWE

SUMTER, S. C.—The Brooklyn Dodgers announced today that their ailing southpaw, Wayne Lamaster, would undergo an operation on his left elbow for the removal of a cartilege and that "we may have him ready for service within six weeks."

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., April 7 (AP)—President Thomas H. Richardson announced today selection of two of five new umpires to be added this year to the Eastern Baseball League—Claude R. Tobin of St. Louis and Les Williams, of Melcher, Iowa.

Both Tobin and Williams served with the Three-I League last season. Both have been umpiring since 1929.

Tobin is a brother of Jim Tobin, one of five umpires who have been retained. Others are Jim Boyer, John Brabowski, Gus Winters, and Charles Moore.

The league will carry ten arbiters, one more than last year. They will work in groups, five handling the games in Springfield, Hartford, Albany, and Binghampton; the other five working in Williamsport, Elmira, Scranton and Wilkes-Barre.
